

21st Century Wellness Technology Plugs-In To Philadelphia

Open House Event Gives the Public First Look at the Energy Enhancement System™

Philadelphia, PA (PRWeb) January 27, 2009 -- The Huna Mua Wellness Center of Philadelphia is hosting a 2-day Open House on January 30th and 31st to introduce a revolutionary bio-regenerative scalar system that enhances physical and emotional well being. There is no cost to attend and the event runs from 6pm to 9pm on Friday and 1pm to 4pm on Saturday in the Overbrook Farms section of Philadelphia.

"Now we can recharge the cells of our bodies just as regularly and easily as we recharge our cell phones," says Dr. Sandra Rose Michael, DNM and developer of the new frequency-based technology. Dr. Michael's Energy Enhancement System (EES) has been shown to facilitate cell regeneration, improve immune function, provide relief from pain and promote a general sense of well being.

There are nearly 300 EESystems worldwide with many of them set up for private use only. The Philadelphia installation marks the first system open to the general public in the NY-NJ-PA metropolitan area. "In these difficult economic times when so many people are losing their healthcare coverage along with their jobs, I wanted to provide a convenient and affordable way to support wellness," says Karen Reifinger, owner of the Philadelphia EESystem and the Huna Mua Wellness Center. According to Reifinger, "Worry and anxiety take a huge toll on our bodies and the EESystem delivers a powerful countering effect."

The system will be available for use during the Open House and Dr. Michael will be on hand to answer questions and give a presentation on the benefits of energy medicine.
